Source Point Therapy is a simple, non-invasive energetic approach to healing. It is based on the premise that underlying our physical body exists an energetic, geometric and informational field – the Blueprint of Health.

This Blueprint, the matrix of healing energy, contains the essential information of Order, Balance, Harmony, and Flow that creates, develops and sustains all life.

In a complex world, simplicity has a great power.

SourcePoint Therapy is a simple approach to healing for the 21st century. – Bob Schrei
